

Course Work for Ph.D. Programme

As per norms of UGC, an entrance test for Ph.D. scholar is essential. Entrance test is being conducted by the University for all subjects, which are approved by the University and also approved in Research Centers. The applications for entrance test is being submitted by the scholar to the approved Research Centers, which is forwarded to the University . The relaxation is given in written test as per modified ordinance for Doctor of Philosophy. On the basis of the results of written test and the relaxation to the eligible candidates, the personal interview is being conducted, in which, the candidates give presentation before the experts of the subject. And thereafter the course wise result for eligible candidates are declared . The eligible candidate takes admission for a course work of one semester in respective research centers, from where, there applications are forwarded. During course work the following papers are being taught .

- A. Research Methodology and Computer Application.-(Common to all) Theory.
- B. Term Paper-(Subject Specific)
- C. Term Paper-II. -(Subject Specific)
- D. Literature Review.

The Supervisors for the concern subject is being provided by the Research Centers and training for the research work and preparation of Synopsis by the scholars are being prepared under the guidance of their respective supervisors. On successful completion of the course work, one written test is conducted by University for Research Methodology and Computer Applications. On declaration of its result, the eligible candidates has to appear before the Research Degree Committee of the respective subject for giving presentation of the synopsis. And after the approval of the topic, they are being registered for PhD degree.